4. Quail Digital FCC ID Label location Information

The following pages desribe where the FCC ID labels are located on the Quail Digital Primary Station and on the Quail Digital Belt pack.

4.1 Primary Station FCC ID Label location.

On the Primary Station the FCC ID label is located at the rear metal panel, together with the product part number and the serial number.

See pictures below:

4.2 Primary Station FCC statement Label location.

On the Primary Station the FCC statement label is located at the rear of the unit.

See pictures below:

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.